Cybersecurity and Cybersafety for Girls is an interactive learning and mentoring experience for middle school girls who are interested in technology, computers, and cybersecurity! Undergraduate students will lead workshops in topics such as password protection, computer safety, lock-picking, and internet privacy. This event will provide girls with the opportunity to learn everything they need to know to safely use the internet and technology with confidence!

Date: Saturday March 2, 2013
Time: 9:00am—3:00pm

For: 6th and 7th grade females
Cost: $30 (includes lunch and activity supplies)
Apply online at
http://www.cyber.umd.edu/education/saturday-workshops

Contact person:
Cristin Caparotta
Graduate Assistant for Education
Maryland Cybersecurity Center (MC2)
(301)-405-6735
capa@umiacs.umd.edu